A special meeting of the board of public safety was held yesterday afternoon to hear charges against Captain Daw, alleging that he knew and did the mysterious shooting in the Bijou bar Monday night and had failed to make arrests or report the information in his possession to the marshal. Capt. Daw proved that he had no knowledge of the affair and was fully exonerated.

Mr. R. J. Wemyss, who has been appointed general immigration and industrial agent of the L. & N., in addition to his duties as general and commissioner, has gone to Louisville, where his headquarters will be hereafter. Mr. A. L. Langellier, who had his offices with Mr. Wemyss, has opened an office in room No. 8 of the Masonic temple, where he will continue to handle the lands and timber of the Michigan syndicate. Mr. Langellier tells us that business in his line is booming and that his company advanced prices Wednesday and will make another advance April 1. The demand for long leaf pine has become extraordinary and yet the turpentine men will not commence buying for some time yet.

Havana correspondent of Tampa Tribune: Major S. S. Harvey, formerly of Pensacola, and late paymaster in the United States army, is engaged in business in Havana and has numerous money-making schemes for investors. He is well known throughout Florida, having for several years been at the head of the Third party movement in the state.

L. M. Barclift, representing Wallace & Gregory Bros. of Paducah, Ky., who has been in the city for the past few days, left last night for Jacksonville. Wallace & Gregory Bros. are the largest manufacturers of fruit specialties in the South, and while here Mr. Barclift sold a consignment of two carloads of vinegar and cider to the wholesale firm of L. Bear & Co.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. A. D'Alemberte's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Program for Veteran's Day.
